

Parents in class

Every year in the Summer Term, parents are invited to sign up to come and spend a lesson in the classroom, learning and working with the boys. This is always a well-attended event and the boys just love having their parents in class with them!

