

Parents reading with children

This takes place twice a year for children in Key Stage 1 and the following day for Key Stage 2. Embraced by both parents and children alike, this is a wonderful opportunity for parents to spend quality time with their children reading together in school, without distraction.

